

Are you ready to see true leadership in action?

Have you ever wondered how state government really works? Head to the Iowa State Capitol, and spend the day learning what it's like to be a lawmaker in Iowa.

Tuesday, February 9, 2016
7:30 a.m. – 3:30 p.m.

Iowa State Capitol Building

East 12th and Grand Ave, Des Moines, IA 50316

Girl Scouts $15, Non-Girl Scouts $30

Lunch included in cost, and you'll receive a fun patch for your day of participation!

Applications due by January 26, 2016

Scholarships are available for those in need. This is a drop-off event. Non-Girl Scout cost includes Girl Scout membership.

Must be in grades 9-12 to participate in this event.

Dress code for this event is business casual.

Take an in depth look at our state government by shadowing one of our lawmakers. You'll be front and center as our state policy makers have lively debates on the House and Senate floors. You'll be introduced during the General Assembly, then paired with a female legislator for an inside look at being a woman in politics. Capitol Girls is a great experience that will help you develop personal leadership skills while experiencing our government in action
